

Spring 2023

DISCIPLINARY KNOWLEDGE & THE GOOD LIFE

What does my discipline, major, or department have to teach me about what makes a life meaningful, fulfilling or well-lived? The Berkeley Institute invites undergraduate and graduate students to a semester-long conversation with UC Berkeley faculty on disciplinary knowledge and 'The Good Life.' What tools can different disciplines offer for understanding and pursuing a life well-lived – and what tools do they not offer?

PROF. KRISTIN PRIMUS
THURSDAY, MARCH 2
PHILOSOPHY

PROF. JOANNA PICCIOTTO
THURSDAY, APRIL 20
ENGLISH

PROF. KARL VAN BIBBER
MONDAY, MARCH 13
PHYSICAL SCIENCES

PROF. DREW JACOBY-SENGHOR
MONDAY, APRIL 24
PSYCHOLOGY

PROF. CAROLYN CHEN
MONDAY, APRIL 3
SOCIOLOGY & ETHNIC STUDIES

Location: 2134 Allston Way, 2nd floor

Time: 6:30pm -8:00pm

All events are free of charge.

For more information and to register for these events, scan the QR code or visit <https://www.binst.org/disciplinaryknowledge>.

